Government Relations Committee Agenda

(TO BE UPDATED)

Recap:

- Laid out goals of foundation building (relationships, clear visions, legitimacy)
- Listening Tour, ASG Platform, and blog
- Educational resources for students (UNC System decision-making breakdown, and more)
- Established, strategic relationships with BOG members, legislators, UNC System staff
- Issues we are keeping watch on:
 - SB 873
 - Performance Based Funding
 - HB2
 - Mental health and sexual assault policy movements

Goals:

- Listening Tour, ASG Platform, and blog
 - How do we identify students (and groups) and faculty to listen to?
 - What does a timeline here look like?
 - What are the topics we want to discuss? Or do we just let conversations develop organically?
- Educational resources for students (UNC System decision-making breakdown, and more)
 - What are resources we think are more necessary for students to have?
 - Why? What is our added value in choosing that? Elevating student voices
 - Should we develop targeted information campaigns through Facebook ads?
- Established, strategic relationships with BOG members, legislators, UNC System staff
 - Who are movers in UNC System policymaking?
 - Gentry and Madeline meeting with folks from UNC Administration
 - What kind of relationship should ASG build with them?
 - How should we approach and frame building the relationship?
- Issues we are keeping watch on
 - What can we be doing now to ensure political legitimacy and currency in the upcoming January legislative session, especially with so much volatility due to elections?
